Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This month I am giving my column up to someone who writes much better than I. This is an article that was printed in another Church magazine that was pointed out to me.

I Am a Church Member

by Thom S. Rainer on Friday, April 26, 2013

When Michael and Liam began meeting for Monday morning breakfast at 6 a.m. more than five months ago, they originally thought it would be a one-time event. They met in a couples' Bible study group in their church. For many reasons, they hit it off and were becoming good friends. The two men enjoyed their time together so much that the one-time event became a weekly event.

Still, Michael was caught off guard on that particular Monday morning. Liam loved the poached eggs in the little restaurant; it was his regular order. But on this Monday morning, he hadn't touched them. He was barely sipping his coffee.

Liam didn't take long to get to the point. "Michael," he began, "Lana and I have decided to leave the church." The pause seemed to last minutes. Neither of the men knew who should speak next. Michael took the initiative and spoke softly yet deliberately. "You want to tell me about it?" Michael inquired. He honestly didn't know if Liam wanted to say any more about it. His friend seemed resolute. Nevertheless, Liam began to explain his feelings and decision.

"Lana and I went to the church to learn deep truths about the Bible," Liam offered. "But Pastor Robert is just not feeding us. We're not getting anything out of his messages. Sitting in the service on Sunday morning is a waste of our time."

Michael didn't respond but could tell that Liam had more to say.

"There are several great people in the church," Liam continued. "You and Karen are the best, and there are a few more like you." He paused and his facial expression became even more serious. "But, honestly, Michael, our church is full of hypocrites. Did you hear Jim at the kids' basketball game? He embarrassed me the way he was calling out the refs. What kind of testimony is that for a Christian? And of course, everyone knows about Neal. He was supposedly this pillar of the church, and we found out he's been cheating on his wife for more than a year. What kind of church is this with these kinds of people?"

Liam was angry but controlled as he continued to vent. "Look, Pastor Robert acts like he cares for us, but I'm not sure he does. I told him that Lana's dad was in the hospital for hernia surgery, and he never visited him."

Michael knew that Lana's father was not a church member, and he lived 50 miles away. He also knew that Pastor Robert called him and prayed with him. But he also knew that any rebuttal would not be timely at the moment. Michael held his tongue.

It seemed that Liam's mild rant was winding down. Liam seemed exhausted, ready to bring the conversation to a close. He did, however, offer a few pointed comments and two insightful questions.

"Michael," Liam began softly. "I really like you and Karen and your kids. All of you are a class act." He paused briefly. "But you seem enthused about the church. You keep serving and contributing. Don't get me wrong, but I wonder at times if you are blind to all the problems in the church."

Then Liam offered a closing that spoke more than he realized. "We are two different types of church members," he stated. "Why is that? Why do we have such different perspectives?"

The difference

Nine out of 10 churches in America are declining or growing at a slower pace than that of their communities. Simply stated, churches are losing ground in their own backyards.

Another way of looking at it is generationally. About two-thirds of the Builder generation, those born before 1946, are Christians. However, only 15 percent of Millennials, those born between 1980 and 2000, are Christians. Millennials are the largest generation in America's history with almost 80 million members.

And we have all but lost that generation.

We can blame it on the secular culture. And we often do.

We can blame on the godless politics of our nation. We do that as well.

We can even blame it on the churches, the hypocritical members, and the uncaring pastors. Lots of Christians do that.

I'm proposing that we who are church members need to look in the mirror. I'm suggesting that congregations across America are weak because many of us church members have lost the biblical understanding of what it means to be a part of the body of Christ.

We join our churches expecting others to serve us, to feed us, and to care for us.

We don't like the hypocrites in the church, but we fail to see our own hypocrisies.

God didn't give us local churches to become country clubs where membership means we have privileges and perks.

He placed us in churches to serve, to care for others, to pray for leaders, to learn, to teach, to give, and, in some cases, to die for the sake of the gospel.

Many churches are weak because we have members who have turned the meaning of membership upside down. It's time to get it right. It's time to become church members as God intended. It's time to give instead of being entitled.

A new path

Though it's a small step, I'm suggesting that church members consider a new path. There are five steps we should carefully and prayerfully take. Let's consider each of these steps to be the type of church member God called us to be.

First, let's note the metaphor of membership.

It's not membership as in a civic organization or a country club. It's the kind of membership given to us in 1 Corinthians 12:27, "Now you are the body of Christ and individual members of it." Because I'm a member of the body of Christ, I must be a functioning member, whether I'm an "eye," an "ear," or a "hand." As a functioning member, I will give. I will serve. I will minister. I will evangelize. I will study. I will seek to be a blessing to others.

Second, I will strive to be a source of unity in the church.

I know there are no perfect pastors, staff, or other church members. But I'm not perfect either. I won't be a source of gossip or dissension. One of the greatest contributions I can make is to do all I can in God's power to help keep the church in unity for the sake of the gospel.

Third, I will not let my church be about my preferences and desires; that's self-serving.

I'm in this church to serve others and to serve Christ. My Savior went to the cross for me. I can deal with any inconveniences and matters that aren't my preference or style.

Fourth, I will pray for my pastor every day.

His work is never-ending. His days are filled with constant demands for his time, with the need to prepare sermons, with those who are rejoicing in births, with those who are traveling through the valley of the shadow of death, with critics, with the hurts and hopes of others, and with the need to be a husband and a father. My pastor cannot serve our church in his own power.

Fifth, I will lead my family to be good members of this church as well.

We will pray together for our church. We will worship together in our church. We will serve together in our church. And we will ask Christ to help us fall deeper in love with this church because He gave His life for her.

FROM YOUR CHAIRMAN

Dear Friends in Christ

Half of 2013 is almost past, talk about time flying.

The mowing schedule is in the back; do not forget to sign up. The small shed has the yard equipment in it. The mower is running good; so far it has not given us any trouble. The leaf blower and weed eater are available for use.

We do not have, at the present time a paid worker to clean the church. The members at our last Voter's meeting decided we would have a general cleanup the second Sunday of each month followed by a potluck lunch. We will have to police ourselves at other times at the completion of any activity.

If you were unable to make the Voter's meeting, the subject was church finance; the bottom line is with a small increase in your regular giving of $10.00 to $20.00 each week would solve the shortfall. If you are able it would help greatly.

We still have two pine trees in need of removal; the two are just north of the northern parking lot. Anyone good at dropping trees so they land on clear ground, I would welcome their help.

Other areas that are still in need of attention are, the outside of the main church building needs some wood sections replaced, and repainting this delay has been a time and weather issue, also the walls in the fellowship area are in need of fresh paint. If any other areas are in need of repair please let a council member know.

Thank You
Bob McClellan
President, Prince of Peace

WORSHIP OUTREACH

Dear Friends in Christ

It is hard to believe that the year is half over. This has been a busy 6 months. I hope we were able to meet some of your concerns. I know we have a lot more to reach and if you bear with me I will continue to strive to reach more of them. At any time you have a concern or suggestion please feel free to come to me. I will try to work on them and see if I can fix them in some way.

We are starting to plan the next 6 months. I hope you will find them enjoyable. If you have any ideas on things to do that will help our church please feel free to contact me. We will like to get the church involved and we don't mind some help from you.

Yours Faithfully
Donna McClellan

DORCAS GUILD

First of all I would like to thank everyone for all of your help throughout the year. God has truly blessed the Dorcas Guild with the talents of our congregation. Our schedule for the summer will not include traditional meetings. We will visit the nursing home on July 2nd meeting at the church at 10 AM. Aug 16th at 10 AM we will take snacks to the Nursing Home. Beginning in Sep we will meet at 0900AM for our meeting and then visit the Nursing Home. My prayers are with all of the congregation for a safe and healthy summer.

Respectfully Submitted by Jan Friend

POP ON (Outreach Network) Committee

The Dorcas Guild will be implementing a network that will assist in supporting members of the congregation through phone calls, mailings, and visits. Contact with members who are ill, shut-in, hospitalized, or moved away will be made on a regular basis. Donna McClellan, Joan Collier and JoAnn McCaffrey will act as the steering committee and will track needs. Other committees in need of assistance are the Events Committee (sends cards -birthdays, anniversaries, get well, sympathy, etc. on behalf of the POP community), Visiting Committee (visits shut-ins at least once per month as well as those in the hospital), and the Attendance Follow-up Committee (performs phone calls and other mailings for members who may not be in attendance for Sunday Services). All committees are seeking other members of the congregation to help with the efforts. If you are interested, please contact any member of the steering committee (Donna, Joan, and JoAnn).

One way that each of the POP members can help is to keep all of our members in your prayers. Second, please keep the church and steering committee informed by phone or email of any needs among our members especially those that are ill or shut-in.

With your help and prayers we hope to have the network implemented during September 2013. More information will be provided as the process is ready for implementation.

Respectfully Submitted
JoAnn McCaffrey
